

The Barrie and District Labour Council is proud to present

Bad Jobs Are Making Us Sick

N Dar, M Hoque, S Htoo, P Paglingayen, J Chamberlain

This short story of insecure work and health brings together the experiences of many hardworking racialized newcomers in Toronto. 2013 • 8 minutes • English

The Journey

Hana Makki

A conversation between a young Ethiopian housemaid arriving in a new country for work, and her older Indian taxi driver. On their journey, we discover these expatriates' hopes, dreams and realities. 2012 • 15 minutes • English (English subtitles)

Just Wait for our Call: The impact of temp agency work on health

N Dar, M Hoque, S Htoo, P Paglingayen, J Chamberlain

Sparked by research into insecure employment and health, the film illuminates employment pathways trapping newcomers in temp work and the effects on families.

2013 • 7 minutes • English

A Struggle to Remember: Fighting for our Families

Aaron Floresco

This film explores how Canadian feminists, unionists and political activists built a potent coalition, mobilized public opinion and achieved vast improvements in maternity leave and other family leave benefits. 2012 • 20 minutes • English (English and French subtitles)

Taking Care of Toronto (4 15-second spots)

Dermott Cleary

From quality drinking water to immunisations to looking after loved ones, Local 79 is the working people who help take care of Toronto and love doing it. (Judith, Kelly, Laura, Kevin)

2011-2012 • 1 minute • English

Tough to Swallow: Meals that Sparked a Seniors Revolt

Carla Bridgewater

This film takes you under cover with a noted food expert, author and critic, to expose the truth about the Alberta Health Services 21-day menu put forward by Alberta Health Services. 2012 • 14 minutes • English

The Ukrainian Labour Temple: A Cultural and Political Movement from Winnipeg's North End

Aaron Floresco

Opened in 1918, Winnipeg's Ukrainian Labour Temple quickly established itself as an important centre for workers, farmers, activists and culture in Winnipeg.

2012 • 27 minutes • English

Union Style

Corinne Baumgarten

This parody of Gangnam Style is an educational video about the importance of unions in general, their history and their current state in Canada.

2013 • 3 minutes • English

Uniting People

Manoj Panday

This documentary throws light on the little-known trade union movement in Nepal.

2012 minutes 11 minutes •

Nepali (English subtitles)

GEORGIAN COLLEGE
Barrie Campus Room K 321
Building K
(Founders Building)
Duckworth and Bellfarm entrance Parking Lot 1

Tuesday
December 3, 2013
7:15 to 9:00 pm

Patty Coates
(705) 726-1722

THE GRASSROOTS FILM FESTIVAL
WWW.LABOURFILMS.CA